Do you sing at church? At our annual sacred music conference amateur and professional singers can learn choral music from different periods, including contemporary Dominican polyphony (often described as "simple, beautiful, dignified, singable"), as well as plainchant and Byzantine chant. Daily activities include chanted Divine Office, spirituality talks, and many opportunities to explore the rich history of Krakow.

Our faculty include:

Rev. Innocent Smith, OP, PhD
Dominican House of Studies
(Washington DC, U.S.A.)

Elena Bird Zolnick
University of St. Thomas
(St. Paul, MN, U.S.A.)

Rev. Dawid Kusz, OP, PhD
The Pontifical University of John Paul II
(Krakow, Poland)

Rev. Robert Mehlhart, OP, PhD,
President of the Pontifical Institute of Sacred Music (Rome, Italy)
